Our Pandemic Silver Lining

The de Young Open is the largest exhibition we've ever put on and, due to the pandemic, the most difficult to coordinate and install. Yet the question we kept asking ourselves was "how do we make this happen again?"

We knew that something this incredible needed a permanent slot on our exhibition calendar—so we've established The de Young Open as a triennial, opening again in 2023. The principal rule won't change: anyone from the nine Bay Area counties who self-identifies as an artist will be able to submit their work for consideration.

Thank you for participating in the inaugural exhibition and showing us the extraordinary breadth and depth of artistic creation in the Bay Area. We hope to see your submissions in 2023.
